Frank H. Moore Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established as a memorial to Frank H. Moore, former manager of L&N Federal Credit Union and to recognize students based on leadership and citizenship, without regard to financial need. Frank H. Moore was General Manager of L&N Federal Credit Union from 1969-1986. He succumbed to pneumonia while battling cancer and passed away at age 52 on October 5, 1986. He had a distinguished career in the credit union movement. His involvement spanned across local, state, and national levels. In 1981 he received the highest honor bestowed by the Kentucky Credit Union League when he was awarded the Steve Brody Memorial Award for outstanding credit union service.

Eligibility

This scholarship is open to all L&N Federal Credit Union members and/or daughters and sons of members. The student must be enrolled, or plan to enroll in the current year in undergraduate study leading to a traditional bachelor's degree and maintain a 2.5 GPA.

Eligible children include a member's unmarried children; natural or, legally adopted or step children. Eligibility also extends to any child principally dependent on a member for support. When not in attendance at school, the child must reside permanently in the member's household in what generally is considered a parent/child relationship.

The scholarship is based on the following:

1. Achievements (11 points)
2. School recommendations (11 points)
3. Strong leadership qualities (26 points)
4. Involvement in school (26 points)
5. Involvement in the community (26 points)

Recipients of the scholarship will be selected by an impartial Scholarship Selection Committee.
